FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

John Cremers named CFO of SICO® America, Inc.

Experienced professional will oversee the financial management of the industry leader in mobile folding tables and space-saving solutions.

Minneapolis, MN, March 20, 2020 – SICO® Incorporated has announced that John Cremers has been appointed Chief Financial Officer of SICO® America, Inc. Cremers, whose diverse financial background includes leadership roles in Auditing as well as Controller, will report directly to SICO® President and COO, Ken Steinbauer.

Cremers grew up in Brainerd, Minnesota and graduated from St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota with a degree in Accounting. He is also certified in APICS Production and Inventory Management and in IIA Risk Management Assurance.

Prior to joining the SICO® team, Cremers was Senior Director of Audit Services at Ecolab in St. Paul, Minnesota. Before that, he spent nineteen years at Imation in Oakdale, Minnesota, where he held the positions of Controller and Chief Audit Executive, in addition to multiple finance leadership roles.

"As a Minnesota native, I'm proud to be joining an amazing Minnesota-based company and global industry leader" said Cremers. "I look forward to helping the company maintain its solid financial health, so we can continue to innovate and invest in solutions to meet our customers' evolving needs."

Steinbauer is excited to add Cremers' expertise to the SICO® leadership team. "John is a proven financial professional and his unique combination of talents in both Auditing and Controller roles will serve our company well," he said. "He brings a new dimension to our strategic financial management while providing the solid day-to-day oversight we'll need to thrive, in our competitive marketplace."
